You can always count on Catalina for high quality, dynamic and professional performances. From contemporary pop & rock to blues & jazz standards (and everything in between), Catalina has an endless repertoire that can be tailored to suit your occasion.

What makes Catalina different?

Unlike most of today's hi-tech duos, Catalina has recorded real instruments to accompany them. This makes for a more authentic “live” band experience. No pre-programmed drum machines or synthesized bass lines, which tend to give songs a sterile sound. As multi-instrumentalists, Catalina realizes the importance of a natural sounding rhythm section to support their live guitar and vocals. That's why they play and record each instrument's backing track for every song.
